Employee Appreciation Summer

YOU get to choose... the date, the time, your guests, and what you want to do! Plus enjoy Extra Special Offers all summer long.

Goodwill appreciates you and the work you do every day. To show our appreciation, employees can choose from a list of Goodwill sponsored events and create a personalized Employee Appreciation Day.

Who can participate?	Employees who were hired on or before July 1, 2024.
What do I get?	Eligible employees will receive tickets to the event(s) they select. The number of tickets available varies for each activity.
What are the EAD activities?	All of your choices for activities are listed inside this flyer.
What if I want or need more?	This year, we will not be selling additional tickets.
How do I choose?	Employees request tickets online at https://goodwillnewark.square.site/ Information about each activity is included in this catalogue.
When do I get my tickets?	Ticket order forms must be received by July 20, 2024. Ticket distribution will begin July 26, 2024. Due to availability, some tickets will be delivered at a later date.
When can I use my tickets?	Every activity is different. Some tickets are usable at any time and some may only be used on specific dates and times. Read the details of each activity included in this catalogue.
What if I change my mind?	We are unable to change requests once orders have been placed.
What if I need transportation?	Goodwill is not able to provide transportation to activities because you can go anytime you want.
What if I lose my tickets?	Tickets are non-refundable and cannot be replaced if lost or stolen.
What if I am no longer working?	You must be employed on the date(s) your selected tickets are distributed to receive your tickets.
Ticket Availability?	Ticket availability are subject to change without notice.
